Daniel Brodhead, Sec. Gen.
John Hall, Secretary, } of the Land
Francis Johnston, Reg. Gen. } office.

The petition of Thomas Stewardson on behalf of himself and the other trustees for the estate of Samuel Caldwell, surviving partner of James Meese, bearing date Philadelphia, 5th Month 17th 1799, stated as follows, viz. That a certain John Collins had in consequence of fraudulent deeds poll, obtained patents for two certain tracts of land, one situate in the county of Northumberland, surveyed to Samuel Caldwell in pursuance of a warrant dated in 1774; and the other situate now in Luzerne county, surveyed to said Caldwell by a warrant also dated in 1774—and requested that patents might be granted, for the said tracts, to William Crammond, Edward Tilghman, John Ashley, and Thomas Stewardson, trustees of the estate of Samuel Caldwell, surviving partner of James Meese, as the said two tracts were part of the estate of Meese and Caldwell.

Whereupon the Board having considered the same, ordered that at least sixty days notice be given in one of the Philadelphia newspapers, and in the Lancaster Journal to the said Collins or his assigns, to appear before the Board on the first Monday in October next, to shew cause if any he or they have, why patents should not issue for the said two tracts to the said trustees agreeably to the prayer of the said petition.

VERGENNES, July 18.

In the Lansingburgh Gazette, we noticed the following anti-Gallic toast.—"May every jacobin, in the world discovered by Columbus, be converted into salt-petre, manufactured into gunpowder, deposited in the powder-room of the gallant Truxton, and from the mouth of his cannon be remitted in the payment of tribute demanded by the five headed monster. 6 cheers."

A correspondent in Bennington County has sent us the following intelligence of the ludicrous proceedings of the Democrats in Bennington on the fourth of July, with a request for its publication.

"Haswell's paper announced that a party of Republicans from Bennington and the neighbouring towns would dine at Williamstown, on the fourth of July, and a number of Robinson's under the liberty tree. They accordingly mustered from Shaftsbury and Bennington about thirty, headed by Governor Robinson and Olin, who proceeded on to Williamstown. In Bennington about 11 o'clock they collected about thirty young boys; and at two in the afternoon thirty Democrats joined them at the brick house, over which the French red cap was hoisted. They chose John Fasset President and 'Tony the printer vice president. At six o'clock, they passed a vote to march in a body round the meeting house. But, unfortunately, after they had paraded for the march, they learnt that their leaders could not conduct them, both being confined within the limits of the goal yard. This put them into some confusion. They, however proceeded to nominate two others.

"Quere. Do not our printer and Ex-Judge do well to complain of the severity and tyranny of our rulers, who have been so inconsiderate and wicked as to hamper them with laws, which thus mark out the ground, which they shall occupy?

"It was also noticed that the red cap, which was placed opposite the federal standard, in the course of the day, bowed and fell twice before the other!"

FROM A LONDON PAPER.

THAT valuable and much admired Foreign Vegetable, the AMERICAN SUMMER SQUASH—A very few of the genuine Seed of this esteemed production are now offered to the public, lately imported, and to be depended upon, every seed being picked and good. The Squash grows on a strong vine, is dressed and brought to table exactly like a turnip, only not peeled, pressed dry, and eat with pepper, salt, and butter; boils in about 15 minutes, and when soft to the touch it is done. The taste resembles the artichoke bottom, but is allowed to be very much superior by the best judges, who deem this particular species of the Squash (there being a great many different sorts) to be one of the very first of vegetables. They are also found to answer in rich soups better than the artichoke, and are distinguished by being equally good in winter, if preserved in a dry place. To be set in April and May; they grow almost any where, without any of that attention which the cucumber requires, tho' best to be brought forward under glasses, or in pots, to preserve them from birds, cats, and ground mice. To be gathered when of the size of a middling turnip; are of a pale yellow, with beautiful scollop'd edges. The vine does not spread much, bears plentifully 4 or 5 months, and is deemed a considerable acquisition. The technical name given to the Squash in botanical descriptions, is the "Cucurbita Melo pepo;" and though not entirely new in England, is very far from being generally known. To be had only at Lewis's, Pastry Cook, No. 11 Charing Cross; and at Bailey's Herb Shop, Covent-garden.

TRANSLATIONS.

[From Mr. CLAYPOOLE's Paper.]

PARIS, May 14,

The Council of Five Hundred have, at length, in their three last sittings, privately called, determined upon the following ten persons as Candidates for the vacant seat in the Executive Directory, occasioned by the going out of Reubel, to be sent to the Council of Ancients. The following are the Candidates, with the number of votes given to each in the Council of Five Hundred, viz.

1 General Lefevre, 338 votes.
2. Sieyes, Ambassador to Berlin 236 do.
3. Duval, Minister of Police, 216 do.
4. Gohier, Ex-minister of Justice, 232 do.
5. Charles Lacroix, Ex-Minister of Foreign Relations, 203 do.
6. Lacrosse, Vice-Admiral, 189 do.
7. Moulins, General of Division, 163 do.
8. Lambrechts, Minister of Justice, 162 do.
9. Martin, Vice Admiral, 161 do.
10. Dupuis, Member of the National Institute, 155.

Next to these Candidates in point of number of votes, were General Brune, Vice-Admiral Bompart, Lacepede, General Muller, Citizen Peltier, Lacoste, Loisel, and Garan Colon. Many of the Deputies have a great desire that a military character may be chosen.

HAGUE, May 10.

The appearance of about twelve British sloops of war at the mouth of the Ems and the Watten, caused considerable alarm. An Hussar Regiment and a half brigade were commanded to repair to the department of Ems.

FIELDKIRK, May 14.

Lucienstieg, which is considered as the key of Chur and Graubunden, was taken this morning about six o'clock. The whole 14th French half-brigade of 3000 men are made prisoners. General Jellachich, by way of Camberdona, attacked the enemy in the rear, and drove them out of their entrenchments. At the same time Field Marshal Lieutenant Hotze sprung with his battalion to the door of the Lucienstieg, and took eight pieces af cannon. The cavalry is pursued. Capt. Romberg, from the head-quarters, is gone with this agreeable news to Prince Charles at Stockach.

MILAN, May 4.

A number of new regulations have taken place here. In the dates of all public notices, and other writing, the republican form is abolished, and the same style adopted which was used in the year 1796. All republican arms and signs are done away. The republican central and municipal authorities are united, and put upon their former footing. The National Guard is abolished, and their arms given up to the former Commandant of Milan. The Cisalpine uniform is forbidden under heavy penalties. All officers in the late system were commanded to give up their books and accounts within 24 hours; and whoever had money, or other effects in keeping, belonging to the French, Helvetian or Italian Republics, were commanded to give them up within 24 hours.

VERONA, May 8.

The insurrections in Piedmont continue. The people in many places have cut down the Tree of Liberty. The French army, 5000 men strong, have been obliged to leave the Maritime Alps, and retreat to Coni.

Field-Marshal Suwarow has sent a corps of 20,000 men against Rome, and 12,000 men to Lucca.

The Austrians and Russians continue to spread their force in Piedmont.—Suwarow has his head-quarters at Tortona, and General Melas near Vukassovich, in Vercelli. They hold the castle of Tortona, in which they have thrown some thousands of French prisoners. The Imperial troops have also possession of Novi in Genoa. General Moreau has taken an advantageous position in Piedmont, betwixt Coni and Turin, and been reinforced with 30,000 men. Field-Marshal Suwarrow, however, is already on his march to attack him.

The Cisalpine Directory, in their flight out of Milan, carried with them, seven millions of livres ready money.

ROVEREDO, May 10.

Betwixt Parma and Piacenza, there is a body of 25,000 Austrian Russian troops.

On the 4th, 10,000 Austrians entered Piacenza.

A Russian corps is marched to Genoa, in hopes of there meeting with the English-Russian fleet.

The report that Alexandria had been taken from the French is unfounded.

In Milan, the people have destroyed the statue of Brutus, which the French had erected; and all goods, the property of Frenchmen, Helvetians, or citizens of the new Italian Republics, are confiscated.

Ten thousand Russians, it is said, have marched through the Valteline into Switzerland, to join the force of Hotze and Bellegarde, and to support the operation of the Archduke Charles.

The Gazette Extraordinary, published yesterday morning contains detailed accounts of the advantages obtained by the Austrians in the Engadine. The French have evacuated the Canton of Appenzel. The Austrians entered St. Gall on the 20th ult. and general Bellegarde is at Chiavenna. The French had lost 4000 prisoners, and 36 pieces of cannon.

Paris papers to the 1st of June inclusive, have been received in town. They contain two letters from General Massena to the French Directory, dated the 24th and 25th ult. by the first of which it appears "that the Austrians were repulsed in an attempt to cross the Rhine with a small body of troops on the 23d ult near Coblentz, (in the Canton of Zurich) and Klingnau, with the loss of 300 prisoners, and several drowned in attempting to re-pass the Rhine." In the second letter, general Massena states, "that the Austrians having collected a force on the left bank of the Thur (he does not state how all the country between the Rhine and the Thur came into the possession of the Austrian troops, and where they now remain) he had thought it necessary to attack them, and had driven them back to the Right bank of that river. In this action the Austrians are said to have lost 3500 prisoners, amongst whom are colonel Barco and captain Prince of Hohenlohe, besides one standard, two pieces of cannon, and 2000 killed and wounded. The French had 400 killed and wounded."

An article from Strasburgh of the 27th ult. three days after Massena's action, mentions "that the Austrians were in possession of Wintertour, on the right bank of the Thur and that the Swiss Convention, after nameing a committee of seven persons, who, together with the Executive directory, were to exercise all the authority of the state, had dissolved itself. The directory, &c. had retired from Lucerne to Arau."

We must wait for further advises, before we can appreciate the true result of these different operations; but there seems no doubt that something very important has happened, to have induced the Helvetic convention to have dissolved itself. Very fortunate consequences are argued from this proceeding.

HOUSE OF COMMONS,

Thursday, June 6.

THE KING'S MESSAGE.

Mr. Secretary Dundas presented a message from his majesty, of which the following is an official copy:—

"His Majesty thinks proper to acquaint this house, that he had some time since concluded an eventual engagement with his good brother and ally the Emperor of Russia, for employing forty five thousand men against the common enemy, in such a manner as the state of affairs in Europe, at that period, appeared to render most advantageous. The change of circumstances which has since arisen, having rendered a different application of that force more desirable. His majesty has recently had the satisfaction to learn that the views of the Emperor of Russia, in that respect, are entirely conformable to his own; but his majesty has not yet received any account, that the formal engagement to that effect has been regularly concluded. He has, however, the satisfaction of knowing, that the same promptitude and zeal in support of the common cause, which his ally has already manifested, in a manner so honorable to himself, and so signally beneficial to Europe, have induced him already to put this army in motion toward the place of its destination, as now settled by mutual consent. His majesty therefore thinks it right to acquaint the house of commons that the pecuniary conditions of this treaty will oblige his majesty to pay the sums of two hundred and seventy five thousand pounds in stipulated instalments, as preparation money; and to pay a monthly subsidy of seventy-five thousand pounds as well as to engage for a further payment at the rate of thirty-seven thousand five hundred pounds per month, which payment is not to take place till after the conclusion of a peace made by common consent. His majesty relies on the zeal and public spirit of his faithful commons, to enable him to make good these engagements. And his majesty, being desirous to afford the necessary succours to his ally the queen of Portugal, as well as to give timely and effectual assistance, at this important conjuncture, to the Swiss Cantons, for the recovery of their ancient liberty and independence, and to make every other exertion for improving, to the utmost, the signal advantages which, by the blessing of God, have attended the operations of the combined arms on the continent, since the commencement of the present campaign, recommends it also to the house of commons, to enable his majesty to enter into such further engagements, and to take such measures as may be best adapted to the exigency of affairs, and most likely, by continued perseverance and vigor, to compleat the general deliverance of Europe from the insupportable tyranny of the French republic.

"G. R."

June 3.

At one o'clock this morning arrived the Hamburgh Mail due on Wednesday. It brings the following important news, which if true, seems totally to refute the reports circulated in the Paris papers, of the defeat of the Russians on the 11th.—Letters from Vienna of the 18th make no mention of any such check.

VIENNA, May 13, (by express.)

"The Austrians have their head quarrers at Novi. Turin with its citadel is now in our possession. The combined Russian and English fleets, consisting of 180 sail, have landed at Genoa, and the harbor and city have surrendered. General Angereau, who had hastened to succour the French with 8000 men, was taken prisoner, with his whole army.

"The Austrians and Russians advanced to the city on the land side, while the 180 sail approached by the sea side; in this manner the city was obliged to submit.

"N. B. Though no official account has been received, the news is nevertheless generally credited.

May 11.

"General Moreau has taken an advantageous position between Coni and Turin, in which he intended to maintain himself, and wait for a reinforcement 30,000 men, but Suwarow was already on his march to attack him.

"This moment, it is reported, that the Austrians have entered Bologna."

LINDAU, May 15.

"Yesterday morning, at 2 3 o'clock, General Hotze entered Mayenfeld, and Gen. Iollachich the the town of Chur.

May 16.

"This moment we received intelligence, by express, that this morning early four companies of French troops have been taken prisoners near Chur. The Austrians have also surrounded 3000 men, who cannot possibly escape. Our troops are already advanced between Sarganz.

May 17.

"Part of General Hotze's army has passed the Rhine near Sargans, which place is almost entirely burned; it will most probably penetrate by the Lake of Walstadt to Zurich. Every hour the passage of the Rhine is expected to take place; near Bregentz, all the pontoons have been ordered up."

FELDKIRCH, May 12.

"According to advices arrived here, Col. Strauch has joined Colonel Lehoup near Chiavanna, and taken from the retreating enemy 32 pieces of cannon, which they could not get away over the mountains, and several hundred prisoners."

BOTZEN, May 14.

"A convoy, consisting of 12 vessels, laden with ammunition, salt, and wine, is fallen into the hands of the Austrians. The whole convoy had been sent from the arsenal of Turin by the Po, and was destined to join the French park of artillery near Cremona."

ROVEREDO, May 12.

"The garrison of Pizzighetone are prisoners of war. The Austrians are said to have advanced to Turin, which place is quite stripped of artillery and military stores; the French having entirely emptied the arsenal, and sent its contents to France.

"In Piedmont the peasants are in full insurrection against the French."

May 14.

"The Imperial Royal and Russian armies have penetrated by Tor, and occupied Arona on the Lago Maggiore, and taken thirteen pieces of cannon; they are also in possession of Chiavasso, two posts from Turin, and have occupied Ivrea, together with the citadel. Colonel Marquette has taken a rich booty of all sorts of ammunition, that had been sent from Turin, and was destined for Cremona. The waggons had stopped on the road, and were taken by surprise: their value is estimated at above a million of florins. It is said that on the 6th May Genoa was taken possession of by the Austrians."

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 19.

"The defeat of the French by Ghezzar Pacha is fully confirmed. Buonaparte is retreating into Egypt, being in want of provisions and artillery, in consequence of the loss of his flotilla."

Lord Bridport has received orders to detach 12 sail of the line under admiral Gardner, to reinforce Lord St, Vincent, and enable him to proceed up the Mediterranean.

A report was in very great circulation on Saturday that Earl St. Vincent had obtained a complete victory over the Brest fleet, having followed it into the Mediterranean. Our duty obliges us to state, that there is no authority whatever for this rumour.

His Prussian Majesty is now on his way from Berlin to Cassel, where he will review the Hessian army.

The Inhabitants of Mentz have received orders to victual that place for six months.

An Austrian detachment has entered Frankfort, and thus the neutrality of that city is at an end.

The senate of Hamburgh has published a proclamation relative to the secret suspicious societies which are said to exist there; and a warning against the printing and publishing of seditious pieces; as also against absurd expressions and reasonings on political subjects; orlibellous remarks on relations.

The Directory has caused several individuals of the principal families of Genoa to be arrested, such as those of the families of Durazzo, Grimaldi, Spinola, Pallavicini, &c. The Ex Nobles who were in the country have been compelled to return to Genoa.

A commission of Military Inquiry has been appointed by the Archduke Charles, to inquire into the Murder of the French Plenipotentiaries. General Spork is to be President of it; and it is to consist of two Colonels, two Majors, and two Auditors. It is to hold its sittings at Villingen in Suabia.

The Batavian Directory have confiscated the property of the House of Orange and its adherants, and of all persons who have emigrated since 1794.

Paris Papers were received yesterday down to the 30th of May.

By these we learn that the Brest Fleet entered Toulon on the 13th of May, and was preparing again for sea. A letter from on board the Jemapper, states, that owing to a heavy gale of wind, it had failed of making the harbour of Cadiz, and also in an attempt to engage the squadron of Lord St. Vincent, Several French ships were seperated in the storm from the main body of the fleet, and have not since appeared. It lay to off Carthagena a day and a half—Another letter from Toulon of the 18th states, that the fleet had arrived except the Censeur.

The rest of the mass of Intelligence brought by these papers (if we except a victory, very suspiciously related in a letter without date, but supposed to have been gained on the 12th of May over the Austrians at Bassignano, where the passage of the Po was disputed, and with the loss of 3000 men to be defeated), may be divided into the foreign and domestic embarrassments of the Republic. The means to which they are driven in order to support the public spirit in this crisis, may be classed with the inventions and lies which have formerly been their resources in less difficult dilemmas.

The real point of interest is the disputable part of these papers in the situation of General Macdonald and his army. Two columns are stated to have entered Rome; and the whole, consisting of 30,000 men, Poles. Cisalpines, and French are spread into the territories of Bologna and Ferrara. Other accounts state, what appears to us impossible, and is irreconcileable with the rest of the Journals, that the junction of these troops has been actually effected with those of Moreau. There is also a pretended account of a defeat of British, Turks, and Russians by Macdonald, after a landing effected by them in the Neapolitan territory.

What the French admit against themselves is not so questionable. The Austrian advanced guard had taken possession of Novi, by which Genoa is straightened, where the head quarters and military chest are. The French forces under Moreau are concentrated behind Alexandria, to defend the approaches to Genoa. Insurrections have broken out in Tuscany, hostages, arrests, precautions of every kind, with the imprisonment of priests and nobles, are the remedies for these disorders. They are all sent into the Citadel of Leghorn. Florence, Lucca, Pistoin, Plato and other towns have been treated in the same manner, and for the same cause—The peasants capture towns, and defeat battalions; Mondovi and Oneglia have been taken by them by assault. At Mondovi 900 French were made prisoners by the insurgents.

The victories of the allies are in general confirmed, and the counter-revolution is acknowledged to be completely affected in Lombardy. All the Cisalpine soldiers are stated to have taken service with the Imperialists. The Generals St. Cyr and Chambaud have been assassinated in Piedmont, and the French say that Turin might have been taken, if the allies had sufficient force to follow up their successes.

Vandamme has been arrested by Massena and sent for trial.

In the interior of France a new kind of language begins to be held in the councils, and much uneasiness is felt for the fourth, occasioned, as it is justly said, by the successes of the Russians and Imperialists, who are drawing towards that quarter. Marbot in the Council of Elders, and Briot in that of Five Hundred, as well as Dubois Crancé, have spoken truths against the Directory and the Ministers, and in a tone unkown within those walls since the 4th of September. These Deputies insist against the frauds in the public departments, the universal depredation on the property of the state and "the organization of dilapidations," which are not to be shielded even by the senatorial purple, or the directorial mantle. They assert that it is the first duty of the councils to know the true state of affairs. They contend that the people must be permitted to address the assemblies, to inform them of the state of public affairs, and to denounce the ministers. And they point out the system of intimidation which prevents a single Journalist from publishing intelligence of the slightest check and reverse which can happen to the armies.

As yet no movements have taken place in Switzerland; and while the Russians and imperialists are penetrating through the obstacles of Piedmont, the Austrian patroles carry off the out-posts of the French at Mentz, and Manheim is surrounded.

On the night of the 15th, the Prefect of Zurich ordered the papers of the celebrated Lavater to be seized. He was himself at Baden, but he has been arrested and conducted to Basle.

PARIS, May 26.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTORY.

ARMY OF ITALY:

Official Report of the operations of the Army of Italy, addressed to the Executive Directory, by the Commander in Chief Moreau, and the General of Division, Emanuel Grouchy, Chief of the Staff ad interim. (Without date.)

"The army of Italy, placed between the Po, and the Tenaro, its right at Alessandria, and its left at Valence, in possession of Casal and Verrue by strong detachments, was in a state to make the enemy repent any attempt to pass the Po or the Tenaro. Accordingly on the 11th of May, after having made disposition in different points, he gained a passage over the Po; but the skilful and vigorous arrangements of adjutant gen. Garreau, who commanded the left wing of the division of gen. Grenier, succeeded in defeating the designs of the Austrians.—All those who passed to the right bank were either killed or taken prisoners. A single battalion, commanded by Dupelin, chief of battalion, made 500 Austrians lay down their arms On the 12th in the morning a body of 7000 Russians crossed the Point Bassignana, with confidence, and directed their chief attack on Pecetto. Gen Moreau had foreseen that attack, and had therefore, disposed the division of Grenier in a proper manner to receive them, which he did with intrepidity. His division, however, maintained its ground against the enemy with difficulty; when the arrival of fresh troops, and the ability and distinguished courage of the chief of brigade Gardanne, who commanded them, began to repulse the enemy. At the same instant the division of Victor, which the commander in chief ordered to advance with all possible haste, having appeared on the heights of Pecetto, the Russians were attacked both on their left flank and in front The action was long and desperate: a country house, situated in the centre of the attack, was taken and retaken several times. At length the enemy gave way on all sides, the village of Bassignana was carried, and the Russians were driven into the river, and upwards of 2000 of them were drowned. Their commander gen. Schuborff was killed. From 7 to 800 prisoners. 5 pieces of cannon, a standard, a number of covered waggons, and the baggage of the enemy, are the proofs of the constant valour of our troops. The Artillery was fired in the most effective manner. General Quesnell having been wounded in the arm was replaced by the Piedmontese gen. Colli, who as well on the occasion as since he has been with the army has given repeated proofs of talents and intrepidity. Several officers of the staff were obliged to quit the field of battle, and among others was the aid-de camp captain Faugerouse, who had a leg shattered by a petard, a wound in the head, and his horse killed under him. Our loss amounts to 300 killed or wounded.

"The commander in chief promoted to the rank of general of brigade, on the field of battle, the chief of brigade Gardanne, and the adjutant gen. Garreau. He also appointed the aid-de-camp Frernier and and Faugerouse, chiefs of squadrons."

The Swift-Sure,

A NEW LINE OF STAGES,

NOW RUNNING BETWEEN

PHILADELPHIA & NEW-YORK,

By the short and pleasant road of Bustleton, Newtown, Scotch-Plains, Springfield and Newark.

THE excellence of this road, the populousness of the country through which it passes, with sundry other advantages, which render it so far preferable to the Old Road through Bristol, Brunswick, &c. long ago suggested the propriety of its becoming the Grand Thorough-Fare from Philadelphia to New York. During the present year, a minute survey of it has been taken, and its superiority over the Old Road, both in winter and summer, has been clearly ascertained.—There are good bridges over all the other waters but the Delaware, and here the crossing is performed with great safety and in less than half the time required at the Trenton Ferry. The road is several miles shorter than the old road, but this is amongst the least of its advantages, because daily experience proves to us, that dispatch as well as comfort in travelling principally depend on the goodness of the road and the levelness of the country, and, in these respects, the New Road is, beyond all comparison, the best. It presents none of those rocky hills, which render the Old Road so fatiguing between the Delaware and Newark. The soil, too, for the greater part, is such as to produce but little mud in winter, and very little dust in summer, which circumstance, added to the beauty of the country, and a considerable proportion of shade, must always render travelling in the latter season peculiarly agreeable.

The Swift Sure starts from PHILADELPHIA, at 6 o'clock every morning (Sundays excepted) from the GREEN TREE, opposite the Lutheran Church, North Fourth street It goes through Frankford to Bustleton, where it stops to Breakfast; from Bustletown it goes through Newtown to Penny-town to dinner; from Penny-town through Hopewell, Millstone, Bound-brook, Quibbletown and Plainfield to Scotch Plains to lodge. The next morning it stops at Springfield to breakfast, from whence it goes through Newark and arrives at New-York at noon.

From NEW-YORK it starts at 3 o'clock in the afternoon (from Paulus Hook) and arrives at Philadelphia the next evening. For seats at New-York, application may be made to Edward Bardin, Old Coffee house, to A. Mathieu, corner of Nassau and John streets, to B. Many, no. 48, Courtlandt, corner of Greenwich street, and to Michael Little, at his hotel, no. 42, Broad street.

Fare for passengers, Five Dollars.
Way passengers 6 Cents per Mile.

Each passenger is allowed to take on 14lbs. of baggage carriage free; but all other baggage, taken on by a passenger, will be charged at 4 cents per pound weight.

With respect to packages sent on without passengers, the proprietors presume they have adopted a regulation, which, though unknown to other lines of stages, they think must meet with general approbation, They pledge themselves to make good every package on the following conditions. The person who delivers the package at the office shall see it entered in the stage-book, for which entry he shall pay 6 cents; he will then state the value of the package, and pay (exclusive of the carriage) one per cent. on the value, as insurance, and for which he will receive a receipt, Thus, for instance, if he estimates his package at one dollar, he will pay one cent. and if at one hundred dollars, he will pay one dollar insurance, and in like proportion for packages of any other value.

Very few persons it is presumed, will dislike this regulation; it will however, be optionable with every one to avail himself of this security or not. But the proprietors think it right to state very explicitly, that they will be responsible for the safe delivery of no package, which is not regularly entered, and for which an insurance receipt cannot be produced.

In the distribution of the route, the greatest care has bren taken to fix on such places and taverns as always afford a good accommodation and entertainment for the passengers at the most reasonable rates The stages are well equipped furnished with fleet and steady horses, and committed to the care of intelligent sober and obliging drivers. The proprietors themselves live at the different towns and villages where the stages will stop, so that the conduct of the persons they employ is continually an object of their attention.—They take care also to see that the passengers are well provided for and politely treated at the taverns, and that no sort of chicanery or insolence is practised upon them; in short, they have spared neither pains nor expence to render the SWIFT-SURE the very best line of stages in America.

The line has now run nearly a month, during which time a great number of gentlemen have gone through, both from Philadelphia and New-York. Every passenger has found the road to surpass very far all that has been said of its excellence; and the Proprietors of the Swift Sure are extremely happy to hear the behaviou, of their drivers, and the treatment at Taverns spoken of with the highest satisfaction.

THE

By WILLIAM GIFFORD, ESQUIRE.

To which is prefixed,

A POETICAL EPISTLE TO THE AUTHOR

By an American Gentleman.

[In introducing this celebrated work to the Gentlemen and Ladies of America, I have endeavored to give it a dress proportioned to its distinguished merit, and to the taste of those for whose amusement and delight it is intended. No expence has been spared in the publication; and I flatter myself that the work does not yield, either in paper or print, to any one ever published in America —— This edition has an advantage over some former ones, as it contains by way of notes, the minor productions of the author; and, it has an advantage over every other edition, in the Poetical Epistle, which is prefixed to it, and which must be extremely gratifying to every lover of literature in this country, as it is a proof that there are Americans who have the taste to admire, the justice to applaud, and the talents to rival the Geniuses of other nations.

☞ Some Copies have been sent on to Mr. Somarville, Maiden Lane, New York, also to Mr. Hill, Baltimore, and to Mr. Young, Charleston.

Copies will be sent to Boston and other places, as soon as occasions offer.]
